

Lesson 20 Mastery Test

Student Name _____ Date _____ Total Correct

1.	I'll say a sentence, then you'll say the past-time sentence. Listen: Her leg hurts when she runs. Listen again: Her leg hurts when she runs. Say the past-time sentence. Listen: He gives money to the poor people he meets. Listen again: He gives money to the poor people he meets. Say the past-time sentence.	Her leg hurt when she ran. He gave money to the poor people he met.	+ –
2.	I'll say a sentence, then you'll say it with a synonym. Listen: He got mad when he lost his keys. Say the sentence with a synonym for mad.	He got angry when he lost his keys.	+ –
3.	I'll say a question with a missing word. You'll say the question the right way. Listen: Those trees growing close to the house? Say the question for the present. Listen: Those trees growing close to the house? Say the question for the past.	Are those trees growing close to the house? Were those trees growing close to the house?	+ –
4.	Listen: You need oxygen to stay alive. What parts of your body take oxygen out of the air?	{Your} lungs.	+ –
5.	I'll say a sentence two times, then you'll say it. Listen: He will be 45 years old on his birthday. Listen again: He will be 45 years old on his birthday. Say that sentence.	He will be 45 years old on his birthday.	+ –
6.	Listen: Their monthly payments are 15 hundred dollars. Listen again: Their monthly payments are 15 hundred dollars. Say that sentence.	Their monthly payments are 15 hundred dollars.	+ –